Item 8.01 Other Events

On October 8, 2012, Equity LifeStyle Properties, Inc. (the “Company”) issued a press release responding to a news report that the Company’s Chief Executive Officer Thomas Heneghan had been approached about the position of chief executive officer of Equity International. Mr. Heneghan had informed the Company that he had not made any commitments to Equity International.

On October 9, 2012, the Company issued a press release announcing that Mr. Heneghan had updated the Company with respect to his discussions with Equity International at meetings held on Monday and Tuesday of this week. Based on those discussions and subject to formal documentation and entry of certain agreements, it is reasonably likely that he will accept the position of chief executive officer of Equity International with an appropriate period for transitioning through February 2013. However, no definitive decision has been made at this time.

This report includes certain “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. When used, words such as “anticipate,” “expect,” “believe,” “project,” “intend,” “may be” and “will be” and similar words or phrases, or the negative thereof, unless the context requires otherwise, are intended to identify forward-looking statements and may include, without limitation, information regarding the Company’s expectations, goals or intentions regarding the future, and the expected effect of the recent acquisitions on the Company. These forward-looking statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to:

- the Company’s ability to control costs, real estate market conditions, the actual rate of decline in customers, the actual use of sites by customers and its success in acquiring new customers at its Properties (including those that it may acquire);
- the Company’s ability to maintain historical rental rates and occupancy with respect to Properties currently owned or that the Company may acquire;
- the Company’s ability to retain and attract customers renewing, upgrading and entering right-to-use contracts;
- the Company’s assumptions about rental and home sales markets;
- the Company’s ability to manage counterparty risk;
- in the age-qualified Properties, home sales results could be impacted by the ability of potential homebuyers to sell their existing residences as well as by financial, credit and capital markets volatility;
- results from home sales and occupancy will continue to be impacted by local economic conditions, lack of affordable manufactured home financing and competition from alternative housing options including site-built single-family housing;
- impact of government intervention to stabilize site-built single family housing and not manufactured housing;
- effective integration of the recent acquisitions and the Company’s estimates regarding the future performance of recent acquisitions;
- unanticipated costs or unforeseen liabilities associated with the recent acquisitions;
- ability to obtain financing or refinance existing debt on favorable terms or at all;
- the effect of interest rates;
- the dilutive effects of issuing additional securities;
- the effect of accounting for the entry of contracts with customers representing a right-to-use the Properties under the Codification Topic “Revenue Recognition,” and
- other risks indicated from time to time in the Company’s filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

These forward-looking statements are based on management’s present expectations and beliefs about future events. As with any projection or forecast, these statements are inherently susceptible to uncertainty and changes in circumstances. The Company is under no obligation to, and expressly disclaims any obligation to, update or alter its forward-looking statements whether as a result of such changes, new information, subsequent events or otherwise.

ELS Addresses News Report
Regarding Potential CEO Change

CHICAGO, IL – October 8, 2012 – Equity LifeStyle Properties, Inc. (NYSE:ELS) (the “Company”) responded today to a news report that the Company’s Chief Executive Officer Thomas Heneghan has been approached about the position of chief executive officer of Equity International. Mr. Heneghan has informed the Company that he has not made any commitments to Equity International.

In any event, succession planning has been a consistent topic of discussion among the members of the Company’s Board of Directors, and the Board has great confidence in the Company’s current president Marguerite Nader, a 20-year veteran of the Company, and the senior management team to continue the Company’s long-standing stable performance and growth. Mr. Heneghan commented, “I think the important point to recognize is that ELS is a great platform with an outstanding track record. I expect that to continue going forward. I have invested a lot of time and have great pride in ELS. Even if my role as CEO changes, given my strong relationship with our chairman I expect to be able to continue contributing to the Company’s success in the future as a member of the board.”
